

WOMAN'S CLUB NEWSLETTER

NOVEMBER 2008

Happy Thanksgiving to All

by Imogene Nelson

Silsbee Woman's Club will meet Thursday, November 13th at 3:30pm in the Community Center. I sure hope to see each of you there. The Home Life Department will present the program. We will vote on 2 new members: Emily Holt and Mary Jacks.

Remember to bring "toys for tots" for the Christian Care Center. This is our November project.

This is "baby needs" month for Victims Assistance Center. Bring anything a baby would use. Mary Kay has taken our August and October collection to the center.

Please bring "anything" you think might sell at our booth for "Christmas In the Big Thicket". We will need to get them priced. Be sure and sign up for a time you can work on our busiest December 6th.

Here's hoping you have sold your 10 calendars.

If you were absent last meeting call Mary Kay to get calendars. If you haven't sold the 10 calendars, call Mary Kay and join a group selling at different locations.

If you would like to go to the Julie Rogers Theatre on February 10th to see "The Rat Pack is Back" call me or Mary Kay. Tickets are $27.00 now. We need to get them in early to get seats together.

Eleven of our members went to Jasper for RFWC Magnolia District fall meeting in October. Hazel did a great job as President. Six members won door prizes. Over $500 was raised in the Scholarship auction. Jasper Women's Club were great hostesses. 50+ were present even with the bad weather.

November and December will be our busiest months. I really do appreciate all you can do the help

SWC be very successful.

By the time you get this newsletter, we will have a new president. We need to pray daily for our president that he will make wise choices for our country.
